Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 13 & 14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on April 11, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
3. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In Claims 1 & 11, the phrases “that rest on tops of the cabinets” and “are supported on the tops of the cabinets...” are unclear and may be deemed confusing since it is not apparent from the language how the ends of the support member are arranged on the cabinets [the examiner suggests “each end resting on the top of a respective cabinet” as just one example for a possible clarification of the first phrase]. In claims 1 & 11, the phrase “the cabinet” {singular} lines 21 & 19 respectively, does not have a proper antecedent basis [is applicant referring to a previously recited “tower cabinets” or a new and distinct limitation?]. In claims 1 & 11, the phrase “of cabinet spacing between the...” is unclear as presently defined since it is not known what the “cabinet spacing” is relative to. In claims 5 & 6, the phrase “the tower cabinet” [singular] is unclear since the limitations previously define “tower cabinets” [plural]. In claim 9, the phrase “the gaps” does not have a proper antecedent basis. In claim 11, the phrase “the junction” does not have a proper antecedent basis. In Claim 12, the phrase “consisting of combination free standing television stands and storage cabinets” is not properly understood as presently recited. Consequently, the remaining claims are rejected because they are dependent upon an indefinite claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-12 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kuvshnikov, Hanson, French publication 644825, German publication 2620438, Lambright et al., Weaver and Davidow et al., describe adjustable cabinet assemblies.
